

Dear Sirs,
this proposal is akin to a complete dumbing down of the radio amateur service. Total elimination of the Morse code requirement will result in a deregulated environment which will be a mirror image of the chaos seen in the 27 Mhz Citizen's Band. There needs to be an incentive to the licensing process in order to keep the standards up and enhance the reserve of technical and operationally competent licensed hams. Regards,

Michael Williams